Royals Christmas Party Photos, Sunday 4 December

LETTER FROM SAMOA

The boys are going great guns, we are staying in a cracker of a resort 50ks out of Apia and the local village people are really making us their own. On the Rugby side - no serious injuries and we have played one game - yesterday against Sataoa U17s. The intensity of the game was hard to describe and our young blokes stood up and beat them 19 to 17. I think it is the hardest game of schoolboy Rugby that I have ever seen.

The Sataoa boys were hard at the ball and very fit. Referring was ok and a player from both sides was marched for a 10 minute break. The Hakka was a real challenge to us "palangi" but the Royals boys stood firm and gave it back to them in spades. It was a great occasion and people cam from miles around to watch and cheer - a lot of them cheered for us! Big party last night and I think one of the senior members of the tour group has proposed to a Samoan lady - dear oh dear!

Big game on Friday against Marist - Apia but we are a chance given that Sataoa beat them last week. I have done a bit of media and JK and I are on local TV tomorrow. So we are staying off the kava this arvo.

We all now know 3 ways to kill a pig!

Cheers and will write later with a couple of photos.
